

GRADUATE ARCHITECTURE

The Graduate Architecture Program at the College of Architecture and Design, University of Tennessee, Knoxville invites you to a graduate student open house.

Learn about our M.Arch 3G program, intended for students from many backgrounds, and our M.Arch 2G for students looking to complete a 4+2 path.

Friday, April 4, 2025

- | | |
|---------|---|
| 11:00am | Overview of the School of Architecture, Vision, and Cultural Direction, with Director Carl Lostritto |
| 12:00pm | Lunch |
| 1:00pm | The Graduate Architecture Program, Curriculum, and Student Experience, with Prof. Jennifer Akerman |
| 3:00pm | Tour the A+A, including afternoon Studios |
| 4:30pm | Tour the Fab Lab |
| 5:30pm | Hang out in one of our favorite haunts and meet with current students and faculty at The Public House |

To RSVP or ask any questions, email Jennifer Akerman, Architecture Graduate Studies Chair, jakerman@utk.edu.

Please let us know if others are coming with you, and if there are dietary restrictions.

Can't attend in person? Contact Prof. Akerman to schedule a Zoom appointment to learn about our M.Arch program.

Locations:

park at Volunteer Hall Garage: 1545 White Ave Knoxville TN 37916 (hourly garage)
walk to the Art+Architecture Building: 1715 Volunteer Blvd, Knoxville TN 37996 drive to the CoAD Fab Lab: 525 N Gay St, Knoxville, TN 37917 (on-street parking)

