

Entry Level Interior Architect/Designer

The entry level designer will work in a collaborative environment that encourages creativity. Flexibility and adaptability are key traits for success. This team member provides assistance and support in all project phases including visioning/programming, schematic design, design development, construction documentation and construction administration with a focus on design excellence.

Responsibilities for entry-level interior architect/designer include:

- Perform computer aided and hand renderings to convey character of a design
- Research and select furniture, fixtures and finishes, based on direction from Senior Designer
- Implement technical details based on direction from Senior Designer
- Develop space plans based on programmatic information
- Work with the team to review space plans and reconcile discrepancies
- Implement interior design detail
- Support in managing client and team expectations through strong communication and organizational skills
- Contribute to the sharing and learning of best practices within the studio environment

Qualifications that will make you a successful team member at this level:

- Bachelor's degree in Arts in Architecture or Interior Design from a CIDA accredited university
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Possess a natural passion and curiosity for learning new things
- Use empathic listening to be influenced by clients, team members and consultants
- Be proactive
- Act with moral integrity
- Ability to effectively collaborate both virtually and face to face
- Basic Revit Skills
- Basic AutoCAD Skills
- Basic SketchUp Skills
- Basic Photoshop Skills
- Microsoft Office proficiency
- Interest in technical detailing
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Working knowledge of design principles and aesthetics
- Fundamental understanding Construction Documents and procedures
- Fundamental understanding of building systems, codes and ADA requirements

Benefits for open positions include the following:

- Competitive Compensation
- 401k with matching funds
- 100% Health Insurance Benefits for the Individual
- Long Term Disability 100% coverage
- Paid time off
- Registration dues paid
- Preferred Associate dues paid with active involvement
- Free Access to Fitness Center
- Stimulating studio work environment